“Behind the pale gold or ruby red or pink wine in your glass is a story. It is a story as old as humanity & as broad as the earth. It is a story of that special combination of sun, soil & climate that produces the wine grape, of the miracle of nature that transmutes grape juice into wine, of the dedicated people who nurture & harvest the vine, of wine tasters & wine brokers, & of the secrets & rewards of wine appreciation. Above all, it is the story of a product that for millions adds something regularly to the joy of living.”
